

17 African countries offer business environments more attractive than India's

Of the 50 countries around the world which have made the greatest improvements to business environments since 2005, Rwanda is the world's second most-improved and 16 other Sub-Saharan African countries are in the global top 50.

Ghana and Rwanda are tied with Switzerland and Canada as the 23rd easiest countries in the world to access credit. 4 countries in Sub-Saharan Africa lead the rankings of countries with the best cross-border trading practices.

